

Mr. Peter Molin
Deputy Governor of Gotland County
Gotland County administration
The Kingdom of Sweden

Mr. Peter Molin has been the county director/deputy governor of Gotland County since May 2011. He has a long career in the Swedish Armed forces; serving on different levels at armored regiments and the supreme headquarter. At the rank of colonel he has commanded an armored regiment and served as brigade commander for six years. He has earned a master degree in strategic science and leadership at the US Army war college.

In 2005 Mr. Peter Molin became the superintendent of the school system on the island of Gotland and held that position up till the current position, leading a thorough reformation of the organization, concerning 2000 employees and 11 000 children/pupils. He was personally engaged in reforming the leadership at the principals' level along with ways of developing education methods.

Mr. Peter Molin has for many years served part-time as the Aide-de-camp to the Swedish King and the Royal family.